

ABOUT

Welfare states are at a critical turning point. The development of welfare systems was one of the defining characteristics of the 20th century, especially in Europe. However, in times of change, it is important to re-think “the welfare state” with a programme of innovative research designed to ask, and answer, fundamental questions about the design, delivery and experience of welfare in the 21st century. It is for this reason that New Opportunities for Research Funding Agency Co-operation in Europe (NORFACE) network has launched a major transnational programme on the topic of Welfare State Futures. This highly topical theme offers an approach from a variety of perspectives and disciplines, enables and encourages multi-disciplinarity and offers a fruitful topic for a European approach, with opportunities for comparison.

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAMME

To advance globally excellent theoretical and methodological disciplinary, inter-disciplinary and comparative research on Welfare State Futures which builds synergistically on a pan-European basis.

To motivate and support excellence and capacity building for research on Welfare State Futures on a cross-national basis throughout the NORFACE countries.

To develop understanding and promote research-based knowledge and insight into Welfare State Futures for issues of societal, practical and policy relevance, with theoretical foundations but worked on jointly with relevant users and experts.

PROGRAMME THEMES

- People and the Welfare State
- Inequalities, Diversity and Welfare States
- Rethinking the Economics of the Welfare State
- The Future Politics of the Welfare State
- Shifting Responsibilities for Welfare

FUNDING

The programme is funded by 15 NORFACE partners and the European Commission. The Swedish Research Council for Health, Working Life, and Welfare has made an additional contribution to the programme. M€ 19 of funding is allocated to fifteen projects that have started from late 2014 to early 2015. More info on www.norface.net.
